Thomas Resenforced by Mr. Henry ergetic Collector Committee to Try Again, Noboly was found yesterday who cared to give a satisfactory explanation why those rich Republicans invited to gather in parlor D R. Fifth Avenue Hotel, on Tuesday night, did not turn up. A Sun reporter saw a number of them, but they did not wish to have their comments printed, and the majority were satisfied with saying that these were pretty busy times for them and they could not be expected to give much attention to politics, especially as they had devoted a good share of their energies and not an insignificant share of their sash to the Presidential battle last fall.

Those in charge of the Republican campaign at the hotel were greatly disappointed over the mighty sim attendance at the conclave, and they were especially annoyed to read the record of the dismal affair in THE SUN.

Here is another thing which shows that substantial Republicans are taking little or no interest in the campaign because the battle lines are not drawn on broad issues. It was ascertained from the friends of those directly inter ested that a number of these substantial Retained from the friends of those directly interstand from the friends of those substantial Republicans have declined to act as Chairmen of Bepublican campaign committees in the Union League and other clubs.

The professional campaigners at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, therefore, were compelled to resort to an heroic course, and Henry Gleason was made Assistant Treasurer of the machine, was made Assistant Treasurer of the machine. This move is known to only two or three, although Mr. Gleason's presence at headquarters was a matter of very general remark. Mr. Gleason is a mighty interesting gentleman. It was of him that from liced once said: "Gleason is a mighty interesting gentleman. It was of him that from liced once said: "Gleason is a mighty interesting the said of the three many man on earth."

But Mr. Gleason is not to be squelched by any such comments. He is a genuine hustler, though his old neighbors in Gawego call him Blowin Gleason. A Republican in authority and that it was necessary to appoint Mr. Gleason assistant to Gen. Sam Thomas, the Treasurer of the State Committee. Gen. Thomas has been going around with an empty saichel, and something must be done to fill it. Mr. Gleason has already got after some of the delinquents. He is an early riser, tirelies, and he will not go to bed while there is a cent in sight. In these distressing days Mr. Gleason is considered a valuable acquisition. That Executive Committee is expected to have another meeting at the hotel this morning. Its this committee that Fred Gibbs and his friends call farmers. The first farmer to arrive last night for the purpose of attending the meeting this morning was the Hon. Isaac V. Baker, Jr., of Comstock's. The other farmers will be here this morning. Coroner Hackett is still in Unea looking after his fences, but he is expected to be on hand to-day.

Senator Edmond O'Connor of Broome was around taking about the big registration in the interior Democratic strongholds.

ALLEGED ILLEGAL REGISTRATION. Bartholomew Buckley Indicted-Assembly-

Since registration began Superintendent Byrnes has had detectives at work upon the registry lists in the various Assembly districts. He called upon District Attorney Nicoll yesbarday, and, it is understood, submitted to him

The Grand Jury was busy most of yesterday considering cases of alleged false registration. principally in the Third Assembly district Shortly before noon they found twenty indictments against Bartholomew Buckley of 105 Mott street, for aiding and abetting twenty men in registering fraudulently at 1% Rivington street, the poiling place of the Seventeenth election district of the Third Assembly district. The testimony before the Grand Jury. 203 Bowery is kept by "Boston Tim" Sullivan and that on the floor above there is a billiard and that on the floor above there is a billiard saloon, and a room behind the billiard saloon which is used for meetings. There is only one other floor in the building. Buckley, as alleged, puttwenty cots into the meeting room behind the billiard saloon, and maintained that he was the keeper of a lodging house. It is charged that he induced the twenty occupants of the cots to register. They were Patrick Mullens. John Vall, Edward Schnell, William Frast, James St. Jehn. Louis Hammel, William Herbert, Charles Biermann, William Onas, David Casey, Michael Kehoe, Thomas Wilson, George Nelson, Patrick Murphy, Thomas H. Coffey, Archibald Thompson, Joseph Boyle, Charles Kelly, John Cronin, and flichael Stanton. It is believed that the Grand Jury will find indict ments against these twenty men for illegal registration.

Michael Stanton. It is believed that the Grand Jury will find indict ments against these twenty men for illegal registration.

Detective Sergeant Titus arrested Buckley at 203 lowery at 2 o'clock, and took him to the General Sessions, accompanied by his counsel, Lawyer James J. Walsh. He pleaded at guitty. While Clerk Hall was making out the commitment to the Tombs, Buckley was seat back to the prisoners' box. After the commitment was made out, he was taken to the District Attorney's office. Buckley said he did not see why he should have been locked up, when bank wreckers were not put behind the bars even for a minute. Assistant District Attorney Unger accepted Frederick Rabbe, liquor dealer, of 127 Centre street, as surety for Buckley in $5,000, and he was released.

Timothy Dry Dollar Sullivan is tired of the imputation attempted to be cast upon him by the City Club Mugwumps that he has been grivt to attempts at colonization in the Third Assembly district, where there is hardly the semblance of an opposition and there is a gractical walkover for himself and his candidate for Assembly.

"The accusation's silly," said Tim last night. But then it has a silly source—that fellow Conkling. Conkling's never lorgiven me for rebaking him on the floor of the Assembly two yearsago, when he was ungentlemanly enough to move a recall of my Bridge bill from the Governor during my absence from the House. Be been trying to get even ever since."

THE TWENTY-THIRD DISTRICT.

George C. Coffin Counted Upon to Surpass Last Year's Good Showing.

In the redistricting under the new apportionment it was rather expected that the Republicans might elect their candidate for Assembly is the Twenty-third district. Politicians were. therefore, considerably surprised when William B. Ellison, the Tammany candidate, was elected over his Republican adversary last year by 1,115 votes.

The Tammany leaders have resolved not to be made the victims of overconfidence this year. made the victims of overconfidence this year, and have nominated their very strongest and mostavaliable representative in the district. He is George C. Collin, who is an old resident and tapayer of the district and thoroughly accuanted with its needs. Mr. Coffin has been as active Democrat in city politics for many years, and has been in great demand as a camplin speater. He was long a member of the sarraganset Club in the old Nineteenth district, and is n w the President of the Pontiac Club, the Tammany Hall organization of his Assembly district. He is a lawyer and one of the Commissioners of Appraisal of the new Harlem liver Speadway.

The Republicans and City Club Mugwumps have united on a candidate against him, but it, Coffin is so strong that the Democracy has acted for the defeat.

Last Days for Registration.

To-morrow and Saturday are the last days for the registration of voters. For the convenisace of those who desire to become natural-ised in time to register. Judge Giegerich of the Court of Common Pleas will hold court from 4 until 10 P. M. to-day and to-morrow.

LITTLE MONEY FROM MUGWUMPS. But Seth Low and W. J. Caylor Will Tall for Mr. Schleren on Saturday Night,

The Mayoralty contest monopolizes nearly all the political interest in Brooklyn, and little attention is being paid to the other issues inrolved in the campaign. It appears to be taken for granted that the accustomed big Democratic majorities will be cast for the State county, judiciary, and logislative tickets, and bandoning the hope of making any inroads in the Democratic strength in these directions, the Republican managers are directing al their efforts to eapture the Mayoralty prize.

Their prospect of doing so, however, is not as bright as it was a week ago. The regular Republican organization, as was anticipated, is badly handleapped by its coalition with the Mugwumps, and Mr. Schieren himself has become much embarrassed by the presence of these bushwhackers in his camp. The stalwart old workers in the ranks of the G. O. P. are getting more and more dissatisfied with the financial management of the campaign.

In spite of the earnest appeals for the sinews of war, contributions have come in very alowly and are small in amount. The wealthy Mugwumps, who have been doing most of the talking, have no intention apparently of going down into their pockets and help push the great reform wave along. It is said that even Mr. S. B. Chittenden, the Mugwump millionaire of the Heights, who is credited with being the discoverer of Mr. Schieren, only forwarded a $200 contribution to the Campaign Committee, and that Mr. Edward M. Shepard, another leading Mugwump, who is making the most noise in the canvass, has not sent in a dollar so far. Nor have the 400 or 500 estimable ladies who recently organized themselves into a Schieren Campaign Club contributed anything so far except their warm sympathies. It is not to be wondered at therefore, that there is a gloomy atmosphere around the Republican headquarters in Lawrence street, and that the boys, who have been so long out in the cold, are getting restive.

The suspicious attitude of some of the Republican leaders also causes Mr. Schieren much worry. They are apprecisensive that in case he should be elected the Mugwump brigade might come in for a share of the patronage, and many of them would rather see him defeated than have such a calamity occur. The question of patronage has already been brought sharply to the attention of Mr. Schieren, and it is said that he has given his nesurance Sthat, when he becomes Mayor, no one who is not a Republican will get any place at his disposal. He has, however, already pledged himself in writing to carry out the nonpartisan Mugwump platform, and the Republican statesmen may demand that he put his partisan promise also in writing.

The Democratic camp, on the other hand, is free from all signs of revolt or disaffection. Never has there been come much embarrassed by the presence of these bush whackers in his camp. The stalwumpallies. Chairman Thomas J. Kenna sald yesterday:

"I am perfectly satisfied with the situation. We shall win. Mayor Boody is gaining every day. I do not wish to be regarded as boasting, but I think our majority will be a large one.'

District Attorney Ridgway is equally confident, and predicts that Mr. Boody's majority will be in excess of two years ago. There will be no other big Democratic meeting at the Academy during the campaign, but there will be over two hundred rallies in the various wards.

Mr. Schleren is doing a lot of handshaking those days. He was up early yesterday mornwards.

Mr. Schleren is doing a lot of handshaking these days. He was up early yesterday morning and made a tour through the Wallabout Market, telling the dealers how greatly it would be to their advantage to vote for him. The Republicans are expecting a great turnout in the Academy of Music on Saturday night. President Seth Low of Columbia and Mr. J. Gaynor will be the principal speakers.

Mr. Shepard in all his speeches has referred to the taxes on the house at 96 Columbia Heights as an object lesson. It turns out, however, that this particular house was taxed $503.57 during Mr. Low's reform non-partisan administration in 1885, whereas under Mr. Boody's alleged extravagant administration last year the taxes were only $510.39.

TOM REED'S VIEW OF IT.

The Ex-Speaker Talks to Massachusetts Republicans About the Senate. Boston, Oct. 25.-The third annual dinner of the Republican Club of Massachusetts was held in Music Hall this evening. The first appearance of ex-Speaker Reed in New England during the campaign and the announcement that Congressman Daizell of Pennsylvania was to speak, and also that all the prominent Republican State candidates were to be present, drew the largest crowd the club has had at a dinner. Nearly 900 plates Soon after 7 o'clock Chairman Simpkins opened the speaking with the sentiment: Massachusetts Republicans are in earnest. "Massachusetts Republicans are in earnest. Earneatness means success." He presented as the first speaker candidate Greenhalge. Mr. Greenhalge stoke of the campaign, which he said had been conducted in a manner worthy the Common wealth. He said:

"I have attempted to rise above any mere spirit of the jockey, of the gambling saloon, and to carry on this battle in the spirit of Harvard, fair, manly, true, and above trick or device."

Mr. Greenhaige spoke fifteen minutes and

Mr. Greenhalge spoke fifteen minutes and was loudly appliauded. The next speaker was the Hon. Roger Wolcott, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. He was followed by Congressman Daizell.

The last speaker of the evening was Mr. Reed. He received an ovation, and spoke substantially:

"It is my purpose to make not a partisan speech, but an unbiased address, and, to startight, I commence with a citation from the only unbiased newspaper I know, of the headline, 'President Victorious,' Over what? The Democratic party.

line. President Victorious. Over what? The Democratic party.

"Let us give the President credit for his firmness, but there lies at the foundation of our Government system no worship of man, but an honest belief in the intelligence and good sense of the people. The members of the majority party determined there should be a disgraceful compromise.

"When the men who arranged it came to the Republican side they found us a solid rock backed by the universal judgment of the people, and after that came the demolition of the compromise. Stronger than all of us stand the people, and so I trust it will always be.

"For the first time in the history of this land the Senate is the subject of flouts and serre of all mankind. Is that a situation of things which the American people can afford to have?"

to have?
"It is not true that the people are the rulers only on election day. There is never a time when their magnificent power cannot reach out to a President against a rebellious Senate, or to teach a party in power that its days of power are numbered unless the edicts of the people are obeyed."

Popullate and the C. L. U. Get Together. The joint Executive Committee of the Trades Union Conference and the Central Labor Union, which has resolved itself into a kind of campaign committee, met yesterday even-ing and issued an address to the public. The address proposes to do away with the conspiracy law, to call for direct legislation by the people in important measures, and in homerule laws for cities in such matters as the con-trol of gas, electric power and means of tran-sit, and concludes as follows:

Sit. and concludes as follows:

A truck manifest succession. Workers Now or never this and vote together.

A truck meeting supposed to represent the People's party and the Trades Union Conforence, was held last night at the corner of Houston street and second avenue. Only Popullet speakers addressed the meeting. The Chairman was E. F. Zimmerman, the Popullet candidate for Benator in the Ninth district. W. J. Miller, W. J. Ellis, and other Popullets made the usual speeches.

MR. KEMPNER'S CERTIFICATE

ROGER FOSTER TELLS HIM IT'S GOOD AND OUGHT 10 GO. If It Doesn't, He May Try to Get the Services of Some Other Man's Watchers-Kemp-ner Challenges Stein to Debute-What Ralph Nathan Did Not Say to Fennel.

Otto Kempner and his political manager, John Fennel, were too busy yesterday to make application for an order to the Police Commisdoners to show cause why they should not receive Kempner's certificate of nomination as an independent candidate for Assemblyman in the Seventh district. Both said last evening. however, that the application would be made in Supreme Court, Chambers, this morning and both expressed the belief that they would be successful in requiring the Commissioners to accept the certificate which they rejected for insufficiency. "I have a letter from a prominent authority which upholds me in my contention that my certificate was properly drawn," said Mr. Kempner last night. The authority, Mr. Kempner admitted, is Roger Foster, who has been a pretty good anti-Tammany authority for many years.

While Kempner and Fennel have affected to make little of the action of the Police Board in rejecting Kempner's certificate, it is known hat they have a lively interest in having the nomination adjudged regular, and for a very substantial reason. A regularly nominated substantial reason. A regularly nominated candidate is entitled to have a watcher appointed by himself in every polling booth at which his ballot is voted. If unsuccessful before the court, Kempner will attempt to get some other candidate to name watchers who will guard his interests at the polls.

Kempner has opened a literary bureau at his headquarters, First avenue and Third street. The first product of this news mill were copies of lutters sent by Manager Fennel to John U. Stein, the Tammany candidate, and Charles Schwick, the Republican candidate for Assembly in the district, challenging them to joint debate with Kempner. Mr. Stein said last evening that he will not reply to the challenge, because he was termed in it a candidate unknown to the people of the district, as one to the people of the district, as one to the people of the district unknown, "he said.

come from Germany and address me, a native of this district, as one to the people of the district unknown." he said.

It was said at Kempner's headquarters that Republican Hoss Jake l'atterson had sold out to Senator Roesch, and the statement was based on one made by Rabah Nathan, the liepublican candidate for Civil Justice against Roesch, that Patterson had not only secured his promise not to withdraw from the race in favor of Fennel. but had directed him not to make a speechmaking canvass in his own behalf, Neither of these statements was made by Nathan to Fennel.

Herman H. D. Klinker, the candidate for Assemblyman in the Twenty-flith district, nominated by ex-Boodie Alderman Duffy's association, whose certificate was refused by the Police Commissioners for irregularity, secured from Justice liarrett in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday an order directing the Commissioners to show cause to-morrow morning why a peremptory mandamus should not issue to compel them to receive his certificate.

Gen. Sickles, Speaker Suizer, and Others Ad-The Democratic campaign in Freddy Gibbs's old domain, the Thirteenth district, was C. Sheeban and the Pequod braves. nard and so did Speaker Sulzer. The latter said of to-night's meeting to denounce Judge Maynard:

"If Brother Coudert will invite me there to tell the truth I will silence the meeting. I remember well when the Manhattan Club gave a reception to Gov. Hill that Mr. Coudert, on behalf of the club, welcomed Gov. Hill as 'the savior of his party,' and said that 'if it had not been for the loyal efforts of Gov. Hill and that able counsel of the Democrats, Isaac H. Maynard, it would not have been possible to win the State for the Democracy."

Speaker Sulzer intimated that it was more than funny to hear the party that had never stopped at stealing anything, from the Freeldency down to an election return, lash itself into a fine freezy over the honest act of Judge Maynard.

Assemblyman Southworth, Ex-Judge Edward Browne, and Col. Gibbons spoke in praise of Mr. Maynard's record, and at the big openair meeting John J. Delaney, Thomas J. Bradler, ex-Assemblyman John B. McGoldrich, and Matthew P. Byan kept the Tammanyites cheering. Leader Sheehan said that the district would be Democratic by more than 2,000 majority.
